Well, today is a special request made by @GoldAnthro . And it's a very catchy yet good song too, it's the Pac-Man Fever. This song was one of many things done by the Pac-Man craze back in the 80's. You could find anything with Pac-Man on it, plates, glasses, clothes, heck he even had his own cereal and Saturday Morning Cartoon! But of course everyone remembers the album and song Pac-Man Fever. This song has a good and catchy rhythm and basically describes what everyone was doing at the time, playing Pac-Man!

So go spread the fever and play some Pac-Man!
