

My favorite adventure game series is back with a vengeance. Time to celebrate.

Today's track is "Introduction" from The Secret Of Monkey Island {audio}http://www.angry-gamers.com/music/miintro.mp3{/audio}

It should be no secret that I love the Monkey Island series. I mean LOVE it. With the re-release of The Secret of Monkey Island on XBLA (and PC (Yes I got both) and episode 1 of the new series from Telltale Games being released last week (I've already finished both twice already (fanboy)) I figured it was time to celebrate with one of my favorite tracks. If you've never played this game series I suggest starting now it's great fun with with some of the funniest moments EVER in gaming. There you go a song and a micro review what more could you want.
