Rob Roberts & DarkSakura of Orange Lounge Radio bring you believe it or not-- VIDEO from the same house where we tape the show currently. If you listen to the show, you know DarkSakura loves some pinball, and we get to see her current collection of tables including Lord of the Rings, World Cup Soccer 94, The Getaway (okay, that one is on loan) and much more!

Also, a great story behind the pinball painting that hangs in "Pinball Alley"

This is something new we're trying out so rate, comment, subscribe and all that jazz :) and most of all LISTEN... because radio is really what we do, not this video stuff!
