Due to legal reasons I can't make this song available for download.

With the 'Retro OLR' kick I've been on lately working on a very special project (which you should stay tuned for details on!) I've been hearing this one alot lately. (It helps that it was the 'intro BGM' to OLR's very very first season way back in 2002, so there's quite a bit of sentiment attached to this song for me.

)

But even without that it's still a pretty good license, proly one of the best featured in 2002's DDRMAX2: Dance Dance Revolution 7th MIX.
