(Due to legal reasons I can't make this song available for download.)

It's good to be back.... And I brought a pick which I think was particularly appropriate for this week.

'But DT', I can hear you say... 'Didn't you do this one earlier?' well yes and no... I did the original Schlagwerk that was in beatmania IIDX 3rd Style, but this was a specially created remix done by our very own LOKI!

And besides, in honor of Sunday's 'fuck show', I couldn'tve thought of a more fitting song..
