As you will hear on the podcast once it goes up this week, I posed a question to our beloved hosts, "what if I created a fan-game in the same vein as the Journey arcade game? (this week's Classic Game of the Week

). They all seemed to love the idea, so I went to work coming up with something that would both draw inspiration from OLR and their love of classic games, as well as the simplicity and sheer ridiculousness of the Journey arcade game and its plot.

Hit the jump for the first in-progress screen and to read more about this epic game in the making!

Here's an in-progress screenshot of the first level, starring our very own Rob Roberts.
