Since the winter holiday season is upon us, I thought I'd do a timely pick that I don't believe I've done yet. V was originally featured in beatmania IIDX 5th Style. Based on Vivaldi's 'Winter' movement out of the 'Four Seasons' arrangement, dj TAKA took the song and remxed it for its appearance in IIDX. The song would later get a 'For EXTREME' edit in DDR, which while it does edit it down a little bit, is still a pretty awesome song still.

V -Conclusion- was a remix specially done for dj TAKA's 'Milestone' album, which featured one disc with some of his original work, and a 2nd disc with songs of his remixed by other artists. The song also made an appearance in beatmania IIDX 16: EMPRESS known as 'V2', as well as making an appearance in last year's Orange Lounge Revolution 2nd MIX (still available now, so check it out if you haven't!)

And speaking of Orange Lounge Revolution 2nd MIX, since we're coming up on the 1 year anniversary of the game FINALLY coming out, I think next week I'll be taking a look at a few of my favorite songs from that game. Including one with a tie-in to a story about a 'demake'whose creator recently wound up in legal hot water, so stay tuned for that next week!

Until then, have a happy holiday, and a happy new year!
