(Legally I can't tell you where to get this, sorry)

I was trying to decide what my first ILTS of 2011 was gonna be, then I remembered this old favorite from OLR's heyday. Back when the hosts had their own station on Live365, occaisionally they'd hijack their own stream to do a 'fuck-off' show and just play whatever they felt like. This was one of the selections that got playtime randomly during these 'fuck-off' shows.

Anyway, while personally I'm not the biggest rap music fan on the planet, I'll happily make special exceptions for any that are well done and/or set to videogame music, as this one was. Also like most rap songs, this one contains explicit lyrics! So just a forewarning before you hit play... (And I realize the show itself gets explicit, but I wanted to use that warning sticker on this entry anyway.)
