Beating Dr. Wily hasn't been so awesome since.

Today's track is Dr. Wily Stage 1 from Mega Man 2

This song really needs no presentation whatsoever. It's freaking Dr. Wily Stage 2 from Mega Man 2! What more can say other than it's probably one of the best video game tracks of all time! Not even Kanye can deny it.

Seriously though, Mega Man 2 has probably some of, if not, the best music in the whole series and of video game history. So many memorable tracks can be named from it, but the climax of it all are the Dr. Wily stages and they couldn't have made a better song than this to hype you up.

I really know you enjoyed this song and if you have any comments or suggestions for future "I love that song" segments, please do so or contact us via Twitter: @olr , @Darktetsuya or me, @act
