First off I forgive act-deft for hijacking my usual timeslot, I just wasn't expecting an update the other day!

Anyways, as I mentioned in my Mario retrospective on Monday, Nintendo and Konami struck a deal which landed Mario in his own GameCube exclusive version of Dance Dance Revolution! A remix of one of the world themes in Super Mario Bros. 3, it's a pretty great track. Jazzed up enough to dance to, while still sounding like the original.
