Okay so rewind.... back before the original Orange Lounge Revolution came out, I was randomly picking songs that I was either into (like the Dancemania licensed stuff) or songs that were in-jokes like this song. Inspired by the 'ketchup song promo' featured above, I included it in the original way back in 2007.

I hope you enjoyed my look back at some of the songs featured in this epic fan-project. More than likely this'll be the last update from me for 2010, though I may do one more song/article before the year's out.... stay tuned to the site to see what happens!
