What better way to celebrate Cinco de Mayo than to dip in the BEMANI vault one more time for this gem, which debuted in the little-seen 'Mambo a GOGO' also released by Konami in the arcades during their music games' heyday. Gamelan de Couple was also featured in the arcade version of DDR Extreme, but wasn't seen in a US home version until DDR SuperNOVA.

And on a related note, don't forget OLR's ninth anniversary is next month! So stay tuned as I just might have some surprises in store....
