What's that you say? Weren't expecting an installment on a Wednesday? Well I talked to some of the others and they said that I could fill in on Wednesdays with a song pick, so here I am with what I'm hoping is a particularly 'phat' track.

While there's a million songs I could've selected as my first entry, I decided on a track I came across playing an older PS2 title, Need For Speed Underground 2.

This track was actually made exclusively for Electronic Arts. It's a very interesting mashup of classic rock and rap music, which seems to fit in very well with the game's fast and furious street racing atmosphere. Normally it only plays during the game's opening menu screens, but you do have the option of cueing it up during gameplay if you wish. There's nothing better than cranking this song while barreling down the highway at 100mph chasing some guy you just challenged to an outrun race.
