June has been a big month for game announcements even without the big E3 expo this year, and this week has continued the announcement train with Ubisoft and Capcom giving more details on upcoming games, as well as even an online archive for one company. It's gearing to be a big release for games as well, with Final Fantasy XVI's demo getting a lot of attention ahead of the game's release later this week. We talk about all this and much more in gaming news, as we come up on our 21st anniversary as a show, all on another week of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the News:

* FTC Looks to Block Activision/Microsoft Merger

* Nintendo Summer of Play Tour

* No More Xbox One Official Support

* Soul Calibur V to be Delisted

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
