

After an eventful week in studio (you can download the lost episode exclusively on our twitter or facebook), the cast of OLR returns this week to talk about the latest in gaming news. Is the PSP set to go download only with no UMDs? A new entry in a popular franchise might be an indication. Are they thinking of turning one popular Sony face into a movie? Well regardless, movies are about to hit Playstation Home when Star Trek outfits beam aboard. In Part B tonight, Braid for the PC carries a secret hidden bonus, and a Bionic Commando multi-player demo is on the horizon. Do we really need some of these Sega games about to come out on Xbox live arcade though, or should you just pick up Sonics Genesis collection? All this and much more including your calls on our skypeline, e-mails, chatroom antics and so much more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice- Orange Lounge Radio!
