

Orange Lounge Radio celebrates seven years on the air, morphing from a Live365 station to a podcast to our home on All Games Radio. The show starts tonight with a flashback to a segment we used to do on the show called How was your week, how was your day? This spawns a long deep discussion on things, as it has been a while since our hosts have got very personal. There is no shortage of gaming news on our anniversary however, as we talk a bit about Magic: The Gathering and other games in our gaming week. Then there are some rumors about Mega Man and Final Fantasy on Playstation Network, and news of yet another lawsuit in the gaming world, this time surrounding FFXI. Tune in for all this and more including your chatroom comments, phone calls and e-mails on the show where every gamer has a voice: Orange Lounge Radio
