This was a special mini episode of Orange Lounge Radio taped for our absence/vacation from allgames.com for October 4th. Rob and Jamie got together to talk about a few of the early news stories from the week (Including Super Street Fighter 4 news) and then got into answering random questions from twitter which spawned some surprisingly in-depth discussions. PLEASE NOTE: This is a MINI episode of Orange Lounge Radio, was not taped live, and is therefore not a typical episode or given a number.
