The Battle Royale might soon be on in Pac-Man but somehow we do not think this is the kind that involves a school class on a deserted island. Dracula X is coming to the Virtual Console, Jamie just might squee her pants! Oh wait, it is in Australia. Bummer, but could this mean the rest of the world is far behind? Capcom delays many of their most anticipated titles deep into 2010 which leaves us wondering... WRYYYYYYYYY??? In Part B, we take a moment to reflect on our favorite games of the year as well as a trip down memory lane as we look at where gaming was 10 years ago and where we are now. What do we think is in store for the next 10 years? What do our many callers have to say? All this and MUCH more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice, Orange Lounge Radio. P.S. Our podcast feed got behind so every episode from December is now posted, you might have to go back in your podcatching software (i.e. iTunes) to grab them. Sorry guys!
