

Sickness, absence, earthquakes & weather, oh my! It seems like mother nature does not want there to be a new OLR tonight, but we press on anyway with a quick show to talk about the weeks updates since Robs return from PAX east. In gaming crime news, we talk about something stolen on the show floor at PAX... and why on earth would someone want to hack a gamercard? The Playstation 3 is deleting a not widely used feature but are our listeners still mad about it? Game Room might be a bit slow to reach that 1,000 mark, but Final Fantasy 9 appears to be coming to PSN sooner rather than later. The show gets completley derailed when a chatroom question leads to a very unlikely special guest. All this and MORE including our regular segments such as the Mailbag, the FUs of the week, Release Dates, How was your gaming week? and of course... YOU! E-mails, phone calls and more on the show where every gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio.
