

Some big shifts have happened at Sony including the departure of a major executive. What could be the reasoning for this, and why now? Or is there necessarily a reason at all? We dive into the reasons for this tonight as well as why Sony may have laid off many associates in another location. This industry- it's quite unpredictable!

Our friend Seg stops by at the top of the second half of our show to talk about a game he has been extrovertly promoting, Dominique Pamplémousse. It's a black and white stop motion musical point and click adventure game, and one of the most fiercely independent games we've come across in a while. Be sure to listen to how you can win a copy of the game!
