Nintendo turned a lot of heads this week by announcing that they will be entering the mobile space after many calls from investors to do so. How do we take to this news? What could this really mean as far as the games that we will be seeing from Nintendo? All this discussion tops our news tonight, after a discussion on a movie that some of us might see, and some of us probably won't see, based on video game culture.

Also in the News:

- * Xenoblade Chronicles too big for default New 3DS Card

- * Playstation Vue

- * Goodbye FFXI on PS2/360

- * Kojima and Konami

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
