Sony announced the Playstation Pro (once referred to as the Playstation NEO) this week, and we check out what our listeners out there think, and decide in studio if we think it's worth picking one up, or if perhaps it's too soon for all of this to be happening.

Our friend Gabe from Nascent Games and the Sacramento Chapter of the IGDA joins us in studio to talk with us about the week in gaming news, and give us some very frank discussion on the good and the sometimes not so good of game development. He's also giving us the latest on Crumple, and Kinship, two games his studio is releasing in the near future.

Also in the News:

- * Super Mario Run announced at Apple Event

- * Pokemon Go Update

- * Interplay selling off IPs

- * Space Channel 5 on VR (sort of)

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
