Some very classic games, Mega Man 2 and Mega Man X, are being re-released on cartridges soon. Does something like this appeal to our video game collector senses? Or is there just no beating the real thing, the classics? We discuss this interesting new trend in game collecting, and then dive into the weeks news which includes new books coming for Nintendo products. It's not the first time they've made books out of video games though as we take a trip down memory lane.

Also in the news:

* Nintendo, Sony, Microsoft Warranty Warnings

* Video Game Hall of Fame Selections

* Red Dead Redemption 2 details

* Ikaruga confirmed for the Switch
