It's our 17th anniversary as a radio show, so we take a quick trip down memory lane and the origins of how it all began. Then, we fast forward to the current and the big release of Harry Potter Wizards Unite which finally released on Android and iOS this week. We talk about some of the things that we think several journalists are getting wrong with the quick comparisons to Pokemon Go. We get into console and PC news too, even if E3 has wrapped up, the news hasn't completley stopped!

Also in the news:

* Niantic buys hybrid board game company

* Steam adds a LGBTQ+ tag

* Could Zelda Maker really happen?

* Calls for a Game Developer Union from one Presidential Candidate

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
