We are back live tonight, and so much has changed in news around the world, including effecting us here at Orange Lounge Radio. We start the show off talking about these updates, and some interesting parallels between this and one very recent video game release. We then get into the many shakeups that have happend in the gaming industry as a result, including the cancelation of E3 for 2020. Could the PS5 and XSX get pushed to 2021? Don't rule anything out.

Also in the news:

* Rumors about a Silent Hill Revival

* Lego Super Mario

* Dreams creators ability to sell some things

* Gamestop hires Reggie Fils-Aime

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
