Even with the Tokyo Game Show occurring (virtually) this week, Microsoft manages to make the big headlines with their purchase of ZeniMax (including Bethesda) early in the week. Has Microsoft spent all that money to bring on new Xbox exclusives and try to ensure more sales of Series X vs. PS5? Or could the goal post for this generation of games have moved a bit in Microsoft's eyes with Game Pass and subscription services becoming an emerging trend in gaming? We discuss all this and much more on a busy news week.
