

It's another week of news in the video game world, including an old classic, Minecraft, popping up in several places this week. First was the shocking announcement that Minecraft Steve would be added to Super Smash Bros... although not that shocking if you put a lot of stock in rumors, maybe. We also got some updates for the game out of a digital version of MineCon that occurred this week. Also in the news this week is a stunning change to confirm and cancel button configurations that could really confuse some people long conditioned to a different standard in Japan. However could accessibility features help make this feature be reverseable? We talk about all this and more on another week of Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the news:

- * World of Warcraft Expansion Delay
- * Animal Crossing Fall Update
- * Pokemon DLC Direct
- * Peter Parker changed for PS5 Marvel Spiderman

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
