Pokemon turned 25 years old this week, and we take a moment to reflect on the series and our memories of it over the years. Sometimes it wasn't just the "main" games that got our attention. Some Announcements to go along with the anniversary were not only confirmation of a gen 4 remake, but also a new game called "Pokemon Legends". What do we think about all of these announcements? We talk about this and much more in the games industry this week including the recent Playstation State of Play!

Also in the News:

- * FF7 Battle Royale & New Mobile Game
- * Sanrio Villagers in Animal Crossing
- * E3 2021 Cancelled per LA Tourism Documents
- * Steam launches Play Together
