

A game near and dear to us turned 25 years old this past week, and we take time at the top of our show to reflect on our memories of what Dance Dance Revolution has meant to us over the years. Without it, we wouldn't have this show, and we're excited that the game has had a recent "2nd Mix" life to allow new generations to play it and bond over it. It's not just Memories (get it?) though, as we dive into the weeks news, including a major hack at Sony. Could this be something similar to what Sony experienced in the Playstation 3 era, or is the data that's been breached not that big of a deal all things considered? We discuss all this and much much more on another week of the longest running video game podcast, Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the News:

* SAG AFTRA Video Game Strike Authorized

* Meta Quest Xbox Cloud Gaming Details

* RE4 Remake Price on Cell Phone

* Layoffs at Epic

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
