

Dan is back in the house this week to offer some more colorful commentary. It looks like Dead Rising 2 is a sure thing, and the early concept sounds pretty awesome, even if our favorite character from Dead Rising is absent..... so far. We reminisce about our time at the Sony Metreon upon hearing that it is closing, and have a cry that FF13 might be pushed back EVEN MORE!

Street Fighter 4 mania sweeps part B of our show, but the news does not stop as we talk about an interesting advertising scheme involving cats! (We are sure that PETA would not approve). Also, could Sega re-registering some old trademarks be a good thing... or a bad thing?

Finally, some news about our old friends at Konami and the old saying "What goes around, comes around"... but should it really be coming around?

All this and more including your input from our live chatroom and phone calls on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice... Orange Lounge Radio!
