

PAX East was this weekend, and we talk about some of the news that was brought up in various panels at the convention, such as an exciting collection of classic NES & Arcade games. You know we don't just love the modern games here at OLR but the retro stuff too, and we're looking forward to this one. Speaking of retro games, we start off our show talking about the recent trend of game remakes-- what if things went the other way and we DEmade games? What game would be fun to see a demake of? And how many of these already exist? It's quite a few!

Also in the news:

- * Continuing adventures in Final Fantasy XV
- * Spyro Trilogy Remaster announcement
- * You Don't Know Jack to return in next Jackbox Pack
- * Earth Day in Pokemon Go

All this and more on the show where EVERY gamer has a voice-- Orange Lounge Radio!
