

The much anticipated plan for Nintendo's online service has been announced this week, and we get into quite a debate at the top of our show about whether we think they have approached the classics correctly, or not. Speaking of much anticipated plans however, it appears that Walmart's systems in Canada may have leaked out some coming E3 surprises. However, why do we have so many surprises in the gaming industry anyway? We discuss with our LIVE listeners.

Also in the news:

- * Game gifting on Xbox One
- * Steam games to be playable on phones
- * A new Famicom Mini
- * Pinball Arcade license changes
