

This week, Sony announced that the Playstation store soon would no longer carry movies directly for rent or purchase. Instead, apps such as Netflix, Hulu, and so forth will be used to provide Hollywood entertainment on the device. Is this news a surprise, or have there been hints that this is a long time coming? We discuss this, and how we feel about the direct movie rentals leaving the service. Also we try to predict what this might mean for the future? We discuss all this and much more on another week of Orange Lounge Radio!

Also in the news:

- * Fall Guys Dev Bought by Epic Games

- * Nintendo Switch Rumors- AGAIN

- * WiiU Surprise System Update

- * Original Diablo 2 Saves will work in Diablo 2 Remastered
