

Employees of Activision-Blizzard staged a walkout this week, and it could be a sign of something much bigger to come not just for this company but for the entire industry. We talk about this, and also about one big manager mis-step to come out so far. Later in the show in our call in segments, we hear from a listener who wonders if the game industry unionizing could bring it's own set of problems. All these opinions and more on another week of the show where every gamer has a voice!

Also in the News:

* New PS5 System Software

* Horizon Forbidden West Delayed

* Final Fantasy 14 Job Icon Change

* Netflix to Get Live Pokemon Show?
