Super Metroid, Super Mario Bros. 3.....

Those two games have won the coveted title of The Best Game of All Time, but Super Mario 3 will have to defend its crown for our 3rd annual Madness tournament!

The 80 finalists are decided by you, the listeners, as well as hosts of Allgames shows (USL, OLR, The Bobby Blackwolf Show). The first step in this journey starts with you emailing your list of what you think are the top 25 games of all time are, numbered 1-25. The games with not only the highest number of votes qualify, but we are introducing a new formula to better seed the games.

Feel free to email us at uslmadness@gmail.com with the subject TOP 25 to ensure your vote gets counted! Polls close on January 29, 2010, and the brackets will be announced on the January 30th episode of Under Sedation Live!!, with weekly results announced after every episode of Orange Lounge Radio starting February 7.

We look forward to your votes!
